

Machine Operator

Company Summary:

Kanzaki Specialty Papers Inc., located in Ware, MA, is a wholly owned subsidiary of Oji Holdings Co., Ltd., the 4th largest paper company in the world. We produce direct thermal paper for the retail, logistics, medical, gaming and industrial markets.

This is a Union position. Employees receive full benefits after introductory period, including health, dental, vision, paid vacation/sick time, disability and life insurance, bonus program, and 401(k). Pre-employment drug test and physical are required. We are an equal opportunity employer.

Full-Time, starting at $19.43/hour after Introductory Period, 4 hours overtime every shift

Salary Range: $42,435 to $70,699

Position Summary:

This position requires the candidate to work as one member of a three-person crew on either a paper coating or paper slitting machine.

Paper Coater Operator:

This position performs various duties to assist the Lead Operator in the set-up and operation of a coating machine including: set-up and operation of the unwind station; participating in changeovers; participating in set-ups and operations for product coating trials; and other similar duties necessary to produce a variety of thermal imaging products using water based coatings within established quality and quantity standards.

Paper Slitter Operator:

This position performs various duties to assist the Lead Operator in the set-up and operation of a paper slitting machine including: setting up paper slitter; labeling, marking, wrapping, and packaging finished cuts as per specifications; relocating incoming and outgoing rolls to and from the slitter; and other similar duties necessary to produce finished thermal paper rolls.

Candidates MUST be able to work both day and night shifts, as well as on weekends. These are full time positions. Shifts are 12 hours and rotate between day and night shifts on a weekly basis. Employees typically work between 36-60 hours per week, with additional overtime hours frequently available.

Qualifications:

Ability to lift 50 lbs.

High School Degree or equivalent

Experience with rotating 12-hour shifts is a plus

Sometimes performs work in constricted spaces

Some manual lifting or moving of materials

Toleration of heavy industrial, high-speed machinery, odors, and dust.

Stand, walk in and around machinery and up and down stairs throughout 12 hour shift